

Issues for Us / Art in Writing presents a variety of newspaper and journal articles, current for 2007, together with an introduction to the issues and ideas raised. Discussion points, research questions and activities for individual or group study are included for teachers to apply directly or adapt as required for VCE Art and Studio Arts.

This resource is designed to help build students ability to:

- explore and evaluate different points of view in commentaries
- understand the nature of criticism and the role of the art critic
- place and discuss artworks within different contexts and 'interpretive frameworks'
- discuss the nature of current 'art industry issues'
- understand some of the personal and commercial influences on artists
- build and practise analytical and interpretive skills
- express their own ideas clearly using appropriate vocabulary
